On 19th October 2024, Allyn Girls hosted a breakfast meeting with Mr. Allan and Mrs. Lynda, generous donors who have committed to sponsoring certified courses for female students. The event began at 9:00 AM with a warm welcome from Fr. Dr. John Rose S.J, who introduced the couple and emphasized their dedication to enhancing educational opportunities. A poster signed by all attending female students was presented as a token of appreciation, which was later signed by Mr. Allan, Mrs. Lynda, and the director, symbolizing the connection between the donors and Allyn Girls community.

Mr. Allan shared the purpose of his sponsorship and encouraged an interactive brainstorming session with the students. He invited their feedback and ideas for future courses, fostering an open dialogue that allowed the girls to express their aspirations. They discussed the courses planned for this year and an appealing suggestion for a placement training course emerged. This collaborative effort will help ensure that the courses are well-recognized and aligned with the students' needs. Mr. Allan expressed his expectation of receiving a yearly calendar detailing the proposed offerings.

To honour Mr. Allan and Mrs. Lynda's contributions, they were presented with a flower plant and a framed piece showcasing heartfelt messages of gratitude written by the Allyn Girls. This gesture reinforced the bond between the couple and our Allyn Girls community, highlighting the impact of their support. At the end of the meeting, the couple was directed to the project presentations of the third-year students, allowing them to see firsthand the talent and creativity of our students.
