The Allyn Girls Committee held its orientation meeting on August 13, 2024, to welcome new members and provide an overview of the committee's objectives and support structures. The meeting was graced by the Director of Xavier Institute, Fr. Dr. John Rose Sr. and the Convener of Allyn Girls, Prof. Smita Pawar who provided motivational insights and detailed information about the committee's mission and objective supporting girls' education.

The meeting commenced at 3:30 pm with an opening address by our Director, Fr. Dr. John Rose Sr. welcomed the new members and emphasized the significance of the committee in fostering an inclusive and supportive academic environment for female students. Father acknowledged the commitment of the committee members and expressed confidence in their ability to make a meaningful impact. He elaborated on how Mr.Allan and Mrs.Lynda Soares's contributions has inspired the committee to help women achieve financial self-sufficiency and leadership roles in their chosen fields. Their generous support aims to empower female students by providing essential resources, scholarships, and opportunities that facilitate their academic and professional growth. Their investment reflects a broader vision of enabling women to overcome financial barriers and become successful, independent contributors to society.

At the end of the orientation meeting, Prof. Smita Pawar delivered a compelling motivational address, urging all the female students to actively engage with the Allyn Girls Committee. To conclude the event,
