The Computer Society of Xavierites (CSX) organized a workshop on "Version Control Databases and more…" to acquaint students with the technologies and tools required for version control and databases.

The speaker for the workshop was Mr. Anurag Yadav (BE-IT) student of XIE. The workshop was started by the Prof. Jyotsna More. In her address, she introduced the speaker to the students.

The Event was a part of one of the various technical and social events organised under CSX. These events are organised every year with the objective to provide platform for the students to gain present industry knowledge and about our today's workshop speaker Mr. Anurag Yadav believes that it is very important to know about version control as it helps in managing and protecting the source code, Keeping Track of All the Modifications Made to the Code and many more. Topics that were covered during workshop were Version control systems I.e.., (git Github) and in databases mongodb and many more. The event was successful enough event attended by 24 students including FE and SE.

Student Feedback and Benefits

The students learned about how to collaborate and work on a project at same place and time using GIT. They learned how to push, pull and perform various operations on a particular file. Overall, the event was well-received by the attendees. They found the information to be valuable and informative. The presenters were knowledgeable and engaging, and they were able to answer all of the attendees' questions.
