TALES OF MUMBAI (POETRY)

The Xavier Institute of Engineering's Cultural Committee orchestrated a captivating poetry event titled "Tales of Mumbai." This artistic endeavour, carefully organized and managed by the adept Cultural Committee admin, unfolded in the serene confines of Lecture Hall No. 1, beginning at 9:30 am.

Guiding the event with a discerning eye was Miss Disha, a judge whose keen appreciation for poetic expression added a layer of professionalism to the competition. Participants, each granted a thoughtful span of 3 minutes, took center stage to share their poetic creations, delving into a spectrum of themes such as love, career, and life.

The carefully curated compositions presented a diverse range of styles and emotions, contributing to a rich tapestry of perspectives for the attentive audience. The meticulous planning and execution by the Cultural Committee ensured a seamless and engaging experience for both participants and spectators.

As "Tales of Mumbai" unfolded, it became clear that the competition not only celebrated poetry but also served as a platform for artistic exploration and creative discourse. Miss Disha's insightful evaluations acknowledged and appreciated the unique qualities of each poet's presentation, elevating the event to a realm of professional judgment.

In conclusion, "Tales of Mumbai" proved to be a successful convergence of artistic expression and thoughtful exploration, leaving an indelible mark on all attendees. The event not only showcased the vibrant poetic talents within the community but also fostered a sense of shared appreciation for the art form.
